To Caroline Weston

Cohasset, Mass.. The writer is sending the circular with a goodly number of names "for Cohasset, which is entire new ground," with very scanty knowledge of the Anti-Slavery issue. There is opposition from retired sea-captains and mackerel vessel owners. The Unitarian minister preaches well and shows considerable moral courage "for a minister." I. S. Smith of Hingham lectured before the Lyceum here on Milton, with reference to present day conditions. The writer thinks that Garrison's paper has not suffered from his illness, but has been fully as "spicy." The writer would like to talk with the addressee about the hanging matter on board Somers". Does not value the opinion of court martial highly, "for many of the officers on board naval vessels, have as little Starmon Cottage, (Perth? Scotland). The writer sent the report of her Anti-Slavery society to L. A. Mr. Ch. seems to be pursuing the proper course (of conciliation with the Garrisonians)." Regrets the lack of Anti-Slavery zeal in Perth. Fears she may have offended Sarah Pugh by her criticism of some of the American Abolitionists. Was pleased to hear that Mrs. H. B. Stowe had arrived in England. She has been invited to visit Perth. re.

Cambridge, Mass.. The writer has received a circular and letter about the Anti-Slavery Fair. Believes that the recent confinement of George Latimer in jail, where the writer "had the pain to see him," will benefit the cause. For the writer, the cause of Temperance reform has the first claim, but he is not indifferent to the Anti-Slavery cause, although he cannot take an active part in it. Discusses the furnishing of paper for the Liberty Bell and the liberal discount in the form of a donation. Comments on Dr. William Ellery Channing's "adhesion" to the Anti-Slavery cause, and on how interest in one branch of re excites interest in another. A.L.S. 2 p. 9 7/8 x 8 in.
